PERSONALITY ANALYSIS

Personal style

| Personal style: Initiator

Rarely short of ideas, Attila Nemet is quick to take the initiative. He likes instigating change at work and needs constant stimulation to keep boredom at bay. He makes sure collaborators are onboard with the suggestions he puts forward, listening to others carefully and making decisions as a group. He is capable of advancing with determination, but also of questioning his approach based on feedback. What's more, he has the capacity to strengthen ties within teams.

| The activities he prefers

Design

Designing is an essential activity in which Attila Nemet feels fully engaged. Contributing his imagination and ideas is crucial to him because he draws significant energy and passion from it. It is one of the key ways in which he finds satisfaction in his work.

Support

Supporting others is an activity from which Attila Nemet draws much satisfaction and motivation. He particularly enjoys helping others and being there for them. It is important for him to bond with those around him.

Evaluate

Attila Nemet can invest himself when it comes to conducting evaluations, even though it is not one of his priorities. To a certain extent, he likes being able to provide his perspective on specific subjects and seeks to be a point of reference when it comes to providing a critical view of projects.

His management style

| What this means

Attila Nemet is a manager whose foremost concern is the team's well-being. He strives to listen to others and take their individual limitations into account. He is an inspiration for employees who prefer a manager that acknowledges human aspects instead of focusing solely on results. He is motivated by teamwork and by fostering a collective spirit.

MOTIVATIONS ANALYSIS

The culture in which he thrives

| The ideal culture for him

Attila Nemet thrives in cultures geared towards relationships and a collective spirit, where human aspects are prioritised, and everyone feels like they belong. This means environments where rules are adapted to ensure everyone's needs are accounted for, and where mutual respect is a top value. He avoids results-driven or data-driven workplaces, preferring cultures centred around collaboration and collective projects. He considers it important that this mindset be shared across the company.

APTITUDE ASSESSMENT

His way of thinking

| Decision-making: Prudent

Tendency to take the time to make the most of available resources.

| Preferred tasks: Intermediate

Capacity to work autonomously.

| Learning style: Experimental

Ability to test things and learn from mistakes.

| How he learns new skills and concepts

When it comes to learning new skills, Attila Nemet will progress faster through a practical approach. He finds it hard to assimilate information without seeing it applied practically first. He will do best if he is taught how to do something new or complex before he tackles it by himself.

Attila Nemet's spontaneous nature leads him to learn by testing out concepts and techniques himself. He finds that the best way to acquire new knowledge is to first try, develop his understanding through failure, and then try again. He can sometimes lack patience. To assimilate new ideas or new knowledge, he first needs to experiment by himself.
